Foreigners and stateless persons staying on the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan should observe declared purposes of their entry and leave the territory of the country after defined period expires.

Temporary staying period of foreigners and stateless persons, who enter the Republic of Azerbaijan upon visa, cannot be more than the staying period indicated on the visa. Temporary staying period of foreigners and stateless persons who enter the Republic of Azerbaijan under visa-free regime, cannot be more than 90 days excluding the cases envisaged by the international agreements that the Republic of Azerbaijan is a party to.

If temporary staying period of foreigners and stateless persons in the country is not extended, they are not granted temporary residence permit, or any application for extension of temporary staying period or issuance of temporary residence permit has not been received by the end of that period, they should leave the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

Upon legal requests of the representatives of the State Migration Service of Azerbaijan Republic, foreigners and stateless persons should present identification documents, as well as the documents certifying their legal stay or residence on the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan.
